

Senior / Associate Level Landscape Architect

Full time, permanent position

Nehru Place, New Delhi

We are looking for a Senior or Associate level Landscape Architect with 10+ years of experience to lead the next stage of growth of the BDP Landscape Architecture team in Delhi. The successful candidate will be expected to win work and build a portfolio of domestic and international projects to be delivered by growing the existing landscape architecture team to design and execute the work.

The candidate must have a passion for design and excellent presentation and work-winning skills, including drafting proposals, preparing pitches and demonstrable design skills including sketching and detailed design, and be a competent user of recognised industry software.

Experience in a leadership position and a proven track record of independently managing clients and delivering projects will be required for the role. A combination of local and international work experience will be considered an asset.

We are looking for someone who can inspire, mentor and encourage junior Landscape Architects within the team to assist them with their professional development and growth at BDP. The successful candidate will be able to supervise technical staff through the design development and execution stages to ensure minimum deviation from the integrity of the design concepts whilst delivering a profitable performance.

The right candidate will join the BDP India leadership team, contributing to the strategic development of the business.
